NARRATIVE SUMMARY

1. H&S COMPANY. The company remained in the Battalion command post (AT989711) through out the month and provided personnel for the command post security and reaction force; a commitment which utilized an average of 35% of the available personnel each day. During the month of January, the reaction platoon conducted thirty seven (37) night patrol/ambushes. These patrols netted four (4) detainees who were interrogated and subsequently escorted to the III MAF PW Compound for classification. An additional row of single apron tactical wire, coupled with three (3) strands of concertina was placed around the Battalion perimeter outside the present tactical wire. Construction of tanglefoot wire between the two (2) rows of tactical wire is in process and approximately 50% completed. Bunker four (4) and five (5) were reinforced and water proofed. The entire perimeter was sprayed with a mixture of defoliator/diesel fuel after an extensive brush/weed cutting project was completed.

2. Company "A". The Company remained in direct support of the 3d Marine Regiment throughout the month. The Company CP was located at Camp J. J. Carroll (YD 063543). A total of 6 direct fire missions were fired expending 31 rounds of 106mm HEP-T and an additional 447 rounds of HEP-T were fired as H&I fire. Results of all fire missions were undetermined. The 1st Platoon remained with the Company CP at Camp J. J. Carroll as a reaction force. The Platoon commenced preparation for rotation out of country with BLT 1/3. The heavy section of the 2d platoon provided direct support for L/3/3 (XD 975567). The light section of the second platoon remained in the Company CP until 25 January performing preventative maintenance and providing security for Camp J. J. Carroll. On 25 January the light section moved to (XD 982544) to provide perimeter security for 3/3's CP. The heavy section of the 3d platoon provided direct support for E/2/3 (YD 096518) from 1-10 January. During this period they participated as part of a blocking force for a County Fair held at (YD 098525) on 7 January. The heavy section returned to the Company CP on 10 January to provide direct support for the 3d Marines. On the 18th, 19th and 20th of January this section conducted resupply runs and route reconnaissance from KHE GIO bridge (YD 026561) along route #9 to L/3/3's position (XD 975567). On 24 January the heavy section moved to B/1/12's position (YD 061572) for a period of 3 days returning to the Company CP on 27 January. The light section of the 3d platoon provided security of th KHE GIO Bridge in direct support of E/2/3 during the month. Daily route reconnaissance patrols were made along route #9 to Cam Lo (YD 116582). Negative contact was made.

3. Company "B". The Company (-) remained in direct support of the 4th Marines on Operation Chinook throughout the month. The Company CP (fwd) was located with the 4th Marines at (YD 530315). The rear CP remained at Phu Bai (YD 894143). A total of 11 direct fire missions utilizing 327 rounds of 106mm HEP-T and a total of 29 H&I missions utilizing 272 rounds of 106mm HEP-T were fired during the month. The 1st platoon (YD 509349) provided direct support for 2/26 from 1-15 January. From 15-20 January they were in support of 3/26 (YD 515317). From 20-31 January the 1st platoon supported M/3/26 (YD 500307). Missions assigned over this period included CP security, resupply, and mechanized patrols. H&I and direct fire missions were undertaken resulting in numerous huts and structures destroyed. The second platoon maintained a heavy section in the Phu Loc area supporting G/2/26 (ZD 129011); and the light section remained with the Company CP (fwd) at (YD 531315). The heavy section conducted patrols and provided security for G/2/26. They fired H&I missions with unknown results. On 7 January this section participated in a Vietnamese Anniversary Parade for RVN units at Hue. On 19 January the heavy section returned to the Phe Bai Vital area in support of 2/9 (YD 894143). The light section, on Operation Chinook, conducted sweeps and patrols, provided CP security and fired direct and H&I missions in support of the operation. The third platoon provided CP security for 3/26 throughout the month. They also conducted motorized patrols and sweeps. Both direct and H&I missions were fired. Direct fire missions resulted in 5 structures destroyed; results of H&I missions were unknown.

4. Company "C". The Company remained in direct support of the 9th Marine Regiment throughout the month. On 5 January the second platoon was chopped to 3d Battalion, 9th Marines prior to going afloat as the Antitank Platoon, BLT 3/9. On 8 January, C-11 from the Heavy Section of 1st Platoon while in direct support of "I" Company, 7th Marines at Coord (AT 943642) fired two 106mm HEP-T rounds at an unknown number of enemy at Coord (AT 948635) after receiving sporadic small arms fire from the area. Results could not be determined. On 9 January the Antitank Platoon, BLT 2/4 was joined as the new 2d Platoon and placed in direct support of the 3d Battalion, 7th Marines. The 2d Platoon CP was located on Hill 65 (AT 878576). The 1st Platoon displaced to the Company CP on Hill 55 (AT 964610). On about 10 January, the 2d Platoon came into direct support of 2/4. On 16 January, 1st Platoon CP displaced to Coord (AT 905718) and became in direct support of 3/7. On about 20 January the 2d Battalion, 26th Marines assumed 3/7's TAOR. The 1st Platoon reverted to direct support of 2/26. On 22 January C-21 and C-22, from the light section of 2d Platoon at Coord (AT 947635) in support of "H" Company, 4th Marines received small arms fire from an unknown number of enemy at Coord. (AT 454635). Four 106mm HEP-T rounds were returned with unknown results. On the same day C-21 and C-22 fired 17-106mm HEP-T rounds from the same position on an estimated enemy squad at Coord (AT 949633), resulting in five V.C. KIA (confirmed) and three houses destroyed. The 3d Platoon was in direct support of the 1st Battalion, 26th Marines throughout the month with the Platoon CP and two Ontos on Hill 55 (AT 964610) providing security for 1/26's CP. Two other Ontos from the 3d Platoon were in direct support of "B" Company 26th Marines at Coord (AT 919545) throughout the month.

Subj: Command Chronology Report; submission of

Ref: (a) BnO 5750.1

1. In accordance with reference (a), the following information is submitted:

a. Reaction Force

During the month of January, the Reaction Platoon conducted thirty-seven (37) night patrol/ambushes. During the month, these patrols netted 5 detainees who were interrogated and subsequently escorted to the III MAF PW Compound for classification. No results on the classification has yet been received. The Reaction Force also discovered and disarmed a VC stick mine armed with a pull type friction fuze with trip wire across path, and turned into the S-3.

b. C.P. Security

An additional row of single apron tactical wire, coupled with three (3) strands of concertina was placed around the Battalion perimeter, outside the present tactical wire. Construction of tangle-foot wire between the two (2) rows of tactical wire is in process and approximately 50% completed. The entire perimeter was also sprayed with a mixture of defoliant/diesel fuel after extensive brush/weed cutting project was completed.

Bunkers Four (4) and Five (5) were reinforced on the roof with two rows of sandbags and a layer of metal for water-proofing.

1. Operations

a. The Company (Bwd) remained in D/S of 3/26 on Operation Chinook, while I Section, 2nd Platoon remained in Phu Bai in D/S of 2/6. On 28 January 1967, the Company (Rear) commenced moving to the north sector of the Phu Bai enclave. The move was completed 31 January 1967.

b. The First Platoon continued to maintain the role as reaction force during the hours of darkness. On 24 January 1967 first platoon attached one M50A1 to the I Section of second platoon for operation purposes. On 27 January the platoon sent a H Section with a third platoon H Section on a mechanized patrol with 1A/3/26. From YD451790 the section fired 6 rounds 106mm as recon by fire into Grid Squares 4828 and 4827. The patrol then proceeded to 515293 where the section fired 46 rounds 106mm into Grid Squares 5227, 5227, and 5226 as recon by fire. Several concrete and wooden structures were damaged or destroyed. On 30 January the H Section, first platoon accompanied a 1A/3/26 patrol to 503315 where 26 rounds 106mm were fired as recon by fire into the village at 405327. The village was heavily damaged. The patrol returned with one VC KIA and one VC C, captured by 1A/3/26. On 31 January 1967 the H Section, again in conjunction with third platoon H section, went on a patrol to YD495297. The section fired 31 rounds 106mm and 750 rounds .30 caliber into Grid Squares 4828 and 4827 as recon by fire. Unknown results. The patrol received one round 120mm mortar from unknown enemy position southeast of position. No action taken. Round was 150 - 200 meters away.

c. The Second Platoon continued to operate in 2 Sections. The H Section maintained defensive positions on the Phu Bai perimeter. The I Section continued on Operation Chinook. On 24 January 1967 a vehicle from first platoon was attached to the section and the section departed in support of 1A/3/26 patrol base at YD 528282. On the 24th and 25th January 1967 defensive positions were maintained
